How to Make Your Own Cleaning Products Seldean Smith 2015-02-26 Table of Contents Introduction Back To Basics - what you will need and why All Purpose Cleaners Citrus Enzyme Cleaner Disinfecting Wipes Refreshers & Dusting Agents Home Enhancing Spray Homemade Glass Cleaner Dusting Spray Wood Polish Carpet Refresher Carpet Cleaner Kitchen Cleaning Homemade Dish Soap Dishwasher Rinse Aid Crystal Cleaner Oven Cleaner Laundry Spot Remover Homemade Laundry Soap Microwave Cleaner Sink Drain Cleaner Wall Cleaner Stain Removing Crayon Remover Ink Stain Remover Homemade Bleach Washing Machine Cleaner Bathroom Cleaning Homemade Bathtub Scrub Homemade Shower Cleaner Toilet Cleaner Conclusion Author Bio Publisher Introduction In a day and age where everyone is trying to save money as well as the planet, green solutions is the new buzzword around town. This book aims at enriching your knowledge and putting the power back into your hands when it comes to cleaning your home and inevitably controlling what harmful contents you and your family get exposed to in the home environment. The really great thing about making your own cleaning products at home is the fact that most recipes are versatile and can be used for many different purposes, eliminating the problem of having too many different cleaning products, but you will find target specific ideas here to help you clean effectively and eco-friendly. The recipes have been placed in categories such as kitchen cleaning and bathroom cleaning so if you are looking for something specific, just have a look at what area you need to clean and then cross reference with the index. There are some great tips on general cleaning and upkeep in and around the house too. It's safe to say that when in doubt, always try using vinegar or baking soda or a mix of the two first to see if that helps. For everything else, use this book as a reference on how to get the job done.

The Naturally Clean Home, 3rd Edition Karyn Siegel-Maier 2021-03-30 In this updated edition of her best-selling book, The Naturally Clean Home, Karyn Siegel-Maier brings together the formulas for home cleaning solutions that readers have trusted for years with new information and ingredients updated to today's green standards. A new introduction shines a light on the antiseptic properties of essential oils, addressing different grades of oil and their effectiveness against bacteria and viruses, as well as updated safety precautions and cost. Updated recipes eliminate Borax (banned as a food additive in the US and from cosmetic and cleaning products in the EU) from ingredient lists, replacing it with safe substitutes that include citric acid powder, hydrogen peroxide, diatomaceous earth, cornstarch, washing soda, and baking soda. New recipes show readers how to make easy, nontoxic, environmentally friendly substitutes for popular cleaning products, including molded laundry and dishwasher tablets. Packaging updates emphasize the use of glass containers for homemade cleaning products, to diminish environmental impact of plastic waste. This publication conforms to the EPUB Accessibility specification at WCAG 2.0 Level AA.

Clean Like a Man Tom McNulty 2004 Most men have a problem with cleaning house: They don't know how to do it, and they don't particularly want to learn. The results are usually a messy house or a bitter spouse—or both. Clean Like a Man is the solution. Written specifically for the attention-challenged and motivation-impaired male, it's the first and only housekeeping primer that tells men how to clean the house their way: getting everything done quickly and easily, without getting to Felix Unger about it. It's such a great approach to housekeeping that women will love it too.

The Complete Guide to Eco-Friendly House Cleaning Anne Kocsis 2010 For many years throughout the 20th Century, the conveniences of household cleaning items was such that no one asked where they came from or what they contained. Today, the consciousness of many consumers has started to advance due to ongoing environmental and economic concerns. For that reason, dozens of new products have developed on the market from Simple Green to Seventh Generation. In addition to these green conscious products though, there are hundreds of ways you can change your house cleaning and maintenance to be eco-friendly, even making your own cleaning materials out of everyday items that have zero environmental impact. This book will guide you through the process of both recognizing and utilizing the most advanced eco-friendly house cleaning technology around, as well as tried and true cleaning methods that have been around for centuries. You will learn all the necessities of green cleaning basics, starting with what your current cleaning products do to the environment, your home, and even your health. You will learn the necessary steps you need to take to transition your kitchen to green products as well as your bathroom, laundry, bedroom, and even the lights you use around your home. Learn how you can start using products that have been around for centuries and have since been forgotten in favor of dangerous chemicals. Learn what you can do to clean up after your pets efficiently and how to keep your children safe from chemicals. Learn which mixtures work, which ones are unsafe, and what resources you can check for additional details you may need. Dozens of experts on green cleaning have been interviewed for this book, providing everything needed by any individual who wants to start changing how they clean their home for good.
