He is out of resources, leads and friends. He knows Candi Gonzalez hates him, but she's the best person for the job. The only problem is that seeing her brings up all the feelings he'd thought he'd buried. Candi cannot believe her eyes when the golden boy CIA agent shows up on her doorstep begging for help. She knows she should say no. After his part in getting her fired, she owes him nothing. But, they're after the same person. Using him is a means to an end, and has nothing to do with her crush on the man. She'll use him and discard him. Just like he did to her. Teaming up was the best and worst idea they had. Thrown together with nothing to keep them apart, the barriers fall away. Candi remembers all too quickly what made her fall for him the first time. One wrong kiss leads to two and a touch oh so right. Joon can't rewrite the past, but he can finally do the right thing.

Take New York by storm and steer clear of serious relationships. That's the plan. That's the goal. It's easy too, now that my software company is making headlines. I don't even know who I am when I'm with her. I'm suddenly a completely different man. But, I like this version of myself better. Mel's smart, determined, and keeps me guessing. She's everything I need and want, but I've been burned before. I'm used to taking chances in the boardroom, just not in my personal life. How much am I willing to risk for a chance to make her mine?

Now, more than ever, you need to count all the reasons why you need to abandon falling. Abandon Falling #1 - He's a womanizer. Hasn't had a serious relationship a day in his life and changes women more often than he changes his sheets. Abandon Falling #2 - He's never serious. He cracks one-liners, mostly at your expense. Abandon Falling #3 - When things go wrong, he seems unfazed and always remains in control. It's so annoying. Abandon Falling #4 - He has tattoos. Lots of them. Everywhere. Not to mention, he owns a tattoo parlor. (Damn it! Why doesn't that sound like a bad thing anymore?) Abandon Falling #5 - There's a growing list of how different you two are. You can't get along for fifteen minutes—a lifetime together would land one of you in prison. Keep repeating those reasons and drown yourself in work.
